

What our clients are saying about us

"From the initial booking with reception to the consultation and followup treatment Igor and his team have been fantastic. With meticulous attention to understanding all aspect of my lifestyle he was able to give me a road map to recovery and future prevention."

"I would highly recommend Edward as thanks to him my is life back to normal now. He is a great chiropractor, unique professional and explains every little detail regarding my treatment.

Thank you, Edward and the whole team, at Canary Wharf's London Wellness Centre."

"I am a final year master degree student and woke up one day without being able to sit down and move normally. I found the London Wellness Center and was so pleased to see that they were accepting to see face to face patient despite the lockdown. Not only I felt 200% better just after the first consultation but Edward is helping me getting better week after week with specific adjustments and exercises. I have now finished my degree and I probably would not have been able to if I did not go and see them."

"After the 1st consultation, I was re-assured that I could be helped and get back on my feet. Since then I haven't looked back."

"So so glad I met Edward - he is professional, knowledgeable and caring individual, truly endeavouring to teach his clients to live to their fullest potential. My lower back has been pain free since..."

"Reception team in LWC is probably one of the most efficient teams I ever witnessed,"

"I highly recommend Edward and the London Wellness Centre for any and all who need to remove their back pain and get their lives back."

"Thank YOU Edward for putting so much passion, dedication and commitment to everything you do... Pete (the massage therapist) has hands of gold and is wonderful in what he does, he is just a bundle of joy to be around!"

"My sessions with Edward Wilkinson have been life changing, since after my first session my lower back pain decreased significantly and with noticeable improvements on other areas of my body, he's very knowledgeable, and he's very happy to share that knowledge with the patient and allow them to understand what's going on their body. He clearly loves what he's doing, and his enthusiasm is a proof of that."

"From the way this clinic speak to you on the phone to the moment that you get out the door, they give you the feeling that they truly care about you."

"Over the course of a few months I went from having intense pain when I would sit down, while I was sitting and when I would stand up, to feeling almost 100% back to normal. It isn't just the pain from my injury that has improved; my posture is better, my neck and shoulders don't ache like they used to, I haven't had a migraine since I started!"

"Amazing service.. Would 100% recommend! The staff in Canary Wharf and London Bridge are also super nice and friendly. Couldn't recommend enough! Please, if you need an adjustment come here."

"I contacted London Wellness during my third trimester of pregnancy after beginning to suffer from what I assumed to be pelvic girdle pain. I was very impressed by Edward's thorough knowledge, professional approach and genuine interest in helping me not only manage my discomfort and pain but also restore my functionality. He also took the time and effort to explain the effects of pregnancy on the body and clearly outline how chiropractic treatment could help me."

"All the staff in LWC are extremely helpful and friendly creating a thriving atmosphere to be in. Really glad with the progress I made so far and looking forward to see what another month will bring! Thank you Edward and team!"

"From beginning of my treatment till now i am so much better physically and mentally. I can do all my daily activities and house chores, can carry my back pack or handbags easily and i can walk and stand for longer period of time. I feel good again :)

I am truly grateful to Edward and Florence for their help throughout the treatment sessions and making my life so much easier."
